BUTLER, Joseph Charles 8 December 1941

Designation	Accident Location	Accident Due to
Head Shunter	Bunbury	Shunting operations

Joseph Butler was 31 years of age when he was fatally injured while shunting at Bunbury railway yard. He had caught his foot in points and was unable to free himself before being run down by a carriage. Joseph lived in Bunbury with his wife and family. He is interred at Bunbury Cemetery with his father who died 6 months earlier (105/ROMAN CATHOLIC/C/GENERAL).

Man Killed At Bunbury
BUNBURY, Monday.
Joseph Charles Butler (31), a married man with a family of small children living at Moore Street, Bunbury, was fatally injured early today during shunting operations here. Butler fell on the track when his foot caught in the points, and before he could free himself he was badly crushed by an empty carriage.

He was taken to a private hospital but later died.

Source: Trove/The Daily News (Perth) Monday 8 December 1941 Page 15.