KILLED BY TRAIN
MERREDIN, Monday
Fifty six year old Charles (Paddy) Cahill, engine driver whose wife resides at Kellerberrin, was cut to pieces by the 10.50 train on Saturday night's train out of Burarcoppin to Merredin. The train was a mile out of Burracoppin when Fireman Waring missed the driver. He stopped the train and Guard Michelson went back along the line and found that the train had passed over Cahill's body.

Sergeant Matthews and Constable Mounter who were on their way back from Burracoppin by car were stopped and they brought the body to Merredin Hospital.
