CALLANAN, Patrick 16 January 1900

Designation	Accident Location	Accident Due to
Fettler	Perth	Struck by train

Patrick Callanan (originally listed as Patrick Callaghan (50-60) due to inaccurate reporting by the Daily News) was 40 years of age when he died as the result of being run over when he stepped clear of one train and into the path of another during shunting operations at the William Street Crossing (The Horseshoe Bridge was not constructed until 1904). Patrick was married and had 5 children. He lived at Leederville with his family and was interred at Karrakatta Cemetery (ROMAN CATHOLIC/AA/0139)
