EVANS, Peter Thomas 11 February 1949

Designation	Accident Location	Accident Due to
Guard	Mornington Mills, M T & T	Shunting operations

Peter Evans "Fairy" was 30 years of age when he was fatally injured while shunting at Harvey. Peter slipped and fell from a brake lever and was hit and rolled several times by the brake guards, he died about 5 hours later in the Harvey Districts Hospital. Peter lived at Mornington Mill with his wife Jean and children Karen and Norma. Peter is interred at Harvey (Old) Cemetery. MM July 2016.

RAILWAY MAN KILLED
HARVEY, Feb. 11.
Struck by a train at Millar's Timber and Trading Co.'s mill at Mornington Mills this morning, Peter Evans (30), who was employed by the company as a train guard, received injuries from which he died five hours later at the Harvey Hospital. He was applying the brakes to a rake of trucks when he slipped and fell. He was hit and rolled over several times by brake guards as the train passed him.

Source: Trove/The West Australian (Perth) Saturday 12 February 1949 Page 4.

FAMILY NOTICES
EVANS, Peter Thomas (Fairy, of Mornington Mill): At Harvey District Hospital, as result of accident, on February 11, 1949. Darling husband of Jean. Fond stepfather of Norma. Oh for the touch of a vanished hand and the sound of a voice that is stilled.

Inserted by his ever loving wife and stepdaughters Jean and Norma.

Source: Trove/The West Australian (Perth) Thursday 17 February 1949 Page 1.