FAWCETT, Charles Vallender 7 April 1949

Designation	Incident Location	Cause
Goods Foreman	Perth	Collapsed on Duty

Charles Fawcett was 61 years of age when he collapsed and died at work. He left behind his wife Jean and 3 teenage children. Charles had been employed by the railways for 41 years. He lived at Floreat Park and is interred at Karrakatta Cemetery (PRESBYTERIAN/IA/0004). Information provided by his son Maurice (82). MM March 2016

WAGR foreman dies at work.
WAGR foreman Charles V. Fawcett, of Selby St., Wembley Park, died after he had collapsed at Perth railway station about 2.25 a.m. today. Fawcett was working at the Wellington St., railway time office. He was dead on arrival at Royal Perth Hospital.

Source: Trove/The Daily News (Perth) Thursday 7 April 1949 Page 11.