Porter Fatally Injured at Subiaco
STRUCK BY PASSENGER TRAIN
Perth, March 21.
Beaumont Cornelius Furzer (67)(SIC), railway Porter, of 287 Hay street, Subiaco, received multiple injuries, which proved fatal, when he was struck by a passenger train in the East end of the yard at the Subiaco station soon after 3 o'clock this afternoon.

Furzer was engaged in cleaning points on the railway line and was apparently unaware of the approach of the train, which was proceeding to Fremantle, in charge of James Barker, Engine Driver.

Constable Lillingston, of the Subiaco Police, is making inquiries.

A St. John ambulance conveyed Furzer to the Perth Hospital, where he was found to be dead.
