RAILWAYMAN'S DEATH.

In an accident at the Cresco Siding, Bassendean, on the night of May 6, Cecil Aloysius Guilfoyle (48), railway guard, of Reserve-street, Bassendean, received injuries from which he died in a private hospital at 3 am on May 7. At an inquest yesterday the Acting-Coroner (Mr P. T. Bridge, JP) found that Guilfoyle met his death on May 7 from injuries received by being run over by a railway truck, and that no blame was attachable to anyone. Inspector J. H. P. Simpson appeared for the Commissioner of Railways, Mr W. Rudinger (general secretary of the Locomotive Drivers' Union) for the engine crew, and Mr C. A. Gough for the widow of Guilfoyle. Sergeant D. Lange assisted the Acting Coroner.
