HUNTER, Robert "Bob" 3 April 1970

Designation	Accident Location	Accident Due to
Fireman	Narrogin	Struck by locomotive

Robert (Bob) Hunter was 29 Years of age when he died as the result of an accident at Narrogin Shunting Yard. He was inserting an alliance transition coupling at the time of the accident and was struck by the locomotive. Bob lived in Narrogin with his family and he is memorialised in the Crematorium Rose Garden at Karrakatta Cemetery (Site 14 Position 0114)

Author's Note: I knew and was a colleague of Bob during my time as a fireman at Narrogin. The above is my recollection of the events that led to bob's death.

Source: Michael Miles, the author of this work, April 2016.