ILES, Reginald 18 February 1952

Designation	Accident Location	Accident Due to
Traffic Inspector	Manjimup	Car hit tree

Reginald Iles was 49 years of age at the time he died when the car he was driving hit a tree 6 miles (9.6km) South of Manjimup. At the time of the accident he was on an inspection tour of stations in the district in preparation for a visit by the Commissioner of Railways. Reginald lived in Bunbury with his family and is interred at Bunbury Cemetery.

Car Crashes Into Tree
MANJIMUP, Mon.
A utility truck driven by Reginald Iles (49), married, left a road on a bend south of Manjimup and travelled 176ft off the edge of the road before hitting a tree. Mr. Iles was taken in a St. John ambulance to the Warren Hospital suffering from a fractured skull. He died early this afternoon without gaining consciousness. Mr. Iles was a railway traffic inspector and resided in Bunbury.

Source: Trove/The West Australian (Perth) Tuesday 19 February 1952 Page 1.

FAMILY NOTICES
ILES (Reginald Charles Harefield): Accidentally killed at Maniimup, loving husband of Kathleen, devoted father of Ron; aged 49 years.

Source: Trove/The West Australian (Perth) Tuesday 19 February 1952 Page 21.