IRVING, William 1 April 1912

Designation	Accident Location	Accident Due to
Guard	Gnowangerup	Shunting contractor's train

William Irving received fatal head injuries when he was crushed between two wagons at Gnowangerup. No other information is available.

A RAILWAY FATALITY.
Katanning, April 1.
It is reported from Tambellup that, William Irving, a guard employed by Vincent Bros., contractors for the Tambellup-Ongerup railway was killed at Gnowangerup this morning. Irving's head was smashed between the buffers of two trucks.

Source: Trove/The West Australian (Perth) Tuesday 2 April 1912 Page 8.