MARTIN, Alfred 24 March 1912

Designation	Accident Location	Accident Due to
Length Runner	Tambellup	Struck by train

Alfred Martin was 46 years of age when he died as the result of a train hitting his per way tricycle near Tambellup. Alfred lived at Tambellup and is interred at Tambellup Cemetery.

RUN DOWN BY A TRAIN.
KATANNING, Wednesday.
A ganger named Alfred Martin, employed on the Tambellup length of the Great Southern Railway, was killed by a goods train on Sunday. He proceeded to his camp about three miles south of Tambellup, on a tricycle and early on Sunday the tricycle was found clear of the line, and Martin's body was discovered between the metals.

Source: Trove/The Black Range Courier and Sandstone Observer (WA) Thursday 28 March 1912 Page 3.