Mc GAVIN, Alexander “Alex” 23 August 1920

Designation	Accident Location	Accident Due to
Porter	Perth	Goods lift accident

On 24 July 1920 Alexander McGavin was critically injured in a goods lift accident at Perth Railway Station. He died at Perth Hospital on August 23, he was 33 years of age. He had previously been employed by the Midland Railway Company. Alex lived at East Perth with his wife Rose and their five children and he is interred at Karrakatta Cemetery (ANGLICAN/HC/0176).

ACCIDENT ENDS FATALLY
Alexander McGavin, who was injured as the result of a lift accident at the Central Railway Station last month, died this morning at the Perth Hospital, where he had remained in a low condition since he met with the injuries. An inquest was opened this afternoon.

Source: Trove/The Daily News (Perth) Tuesday 24 August 1920 Page 6.

FAMILY NOTICE.
McGAVIN. On August 23, 1920, at Perth Public Hospital. Alexander (Alex.) McGavin of the W.A.G. Railways, and late of the Midland Railway Company, loving husband of Mrs. Rose McGavin and fond father of Alex W., Violet A., Lorna A., John F., and Loris B., eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. A. McGavin, of Victoria Park, aged 33 years. May his soul rest in peace.

Source: Trove/The West Australian (Perth) Tuesday 24 August 1920 Page 6.