McGLYNN, Frank 22 November 1948

Designation	Accident Location	Accident Due to
Shunter	Bunbury Breakwater	Shunting operations

Frank Mcglynn was 39 years of age when he was killed instantly while engaged on shunting duties at Bunbury. It was believed at the time of the accident that Frank fell from a wagon he was seen riding and died instantly from his injuries. Frank McGlynn was a returned serviceman and an ex prisoner of war. Frank was single and lived at Bunbury he is believed to be interred at Bunbury Cemetery

RAILWAYMAN KILLED BUNBURY, Nov. 22:

Believed to have fallen from a train on the Bunbury breakwater at 4 p.m. today, Frank McGlynn (39), single, of Stockley Road, Bunbury, was killed instantly. There was no witness of the accident. McGlynn was last seen riding on the leading truck of a train. He was a former prisoner of war.

Police were told that McGlynn dismounted to shift a trolley and climbed on to the train again. When the body was discovered by workmates a doctor and the police were called and they arrived a few minutes after the accident.

Source : Trove/The West Australian (Perth) Tuesday 23 November 1948 Page 9