NEWS FROM GERALDTON.
FATAL ACCIDENT TO A RAILWAY GUARD
Geraldton. June 4
A railway guard, named Patrick McMahon, employed by Messrs. Neil McNeil and Co., on the Mullewa line, was killed on Saturday morning. While McMahon was stepping from one truck to another, while the train was in motion, he slipped and fell, several loaded trucks passing over him, cutting off both his legs and his head. Death was instantaneous. The funeral took place yesterday at Geraldton, all the navvies engaged on the line attending. The deceased leaves a wife and a young child.
