O'CALLAGHAN, Patrick Joseph James 4 July 1951

Designation	Incident Location	Incident Due to
Porter	Perth	Natural Causes

Patrick O'Callaghan was 44 years of age when he collapsed and died suddenly on the morning of Wednesday 4 July 1951 while carrying out his duties as a porter at the Perth Goods Sheds. Patrick lived at Mount Lawley with his wife Mary and their daughter, Valerie. Mary survived Patrick by 56 years and passed away at the age of 95 in 2007, she is interred with Patrick at Karrakatta Cemetery (ROMAN CATHOLIC/KC/0232).

PORTER DIES AT WORK
A porter working at the railway good sheds, West Perth, collapsed and died about 6.10 a.m. yesterday. He was Patrick Joseph O'Callaghan (45), of Grosvenor-road, North Perth.

Source: Trove/The West Australian Thursday 5 July 1951 Page 6.

O'CALLAGHAN: On July 4, 1951, at Perth, called suddenly from loved ones. Patrick Joseph James, beloved husband of Mary Phyllis, loving father of Valerie Jan, fond brother of Tom and Dennis; aged 44 tears. Requiescat in pace.

O'CALLAGHAN: On July 4, 1951, Patrick, loved brother of Tom, brother-in-law of Alice. R.I.P.

O'CALLAGHAN: On July 4 1951, Patrick, loved brother of Denis, brother-in-law of Mary, fond uncle of Denis. R.I.P.

O'CALLAGHAN (Patrick): On July 4 suddenly, loving son-in-law of Mrs. and Mr. Dick Barnes; brother-in-law of Celia Barnes; Alice and Bill Pola and uncle of Spencer and Graham. Fondest memories.

O'CALLAGHAN (P.): A tribute to a dear friend of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Mac Rae and sons

Source: Trove/The West Australian Thursday 5 July 1951 Page 20.