REILLY, Daniel Francis 24 November 1952

| Designation | Accident Location | Accident Due to |
|---|---|---|
| Examiner | Narrogin | Struck by Wagons |

Daniel Reilly was 48 years of age when he was fatally injured in a shunting accident at Narrogin. Daniel was checking the couplings on wagons in a train being made up for Collie when other wagons were shunted onto them. Daniel lived in Narrogin with his family and he was interred at the Roman Catholic section of the Narrogin Cemetery.

Railwayman Is Killed At Narrogin
NARROGIN, Mon. Daniel Francis Reilly (48), married, railway examiner, of Lock street, Narrogin, received fatal injuries in a shunting accident in the Narrogin railway yards about 4 o'clock this afternoon. He was taken in a St. John ambulance to the Narrogin District Hospital, where he died shortly after admission. Mr. Reilly was coupling trucks when another rake of trucks was shunted into them. He was thrown on to the rails and the wheels of a truck passed over him.

Source: Trove/The West Australian (Perth) Tuesday 25 November 1952 Page 1.

FUNERAL NOTICE.
REILLY: The Friends of the late Daniel Francis Reilly, of 38 Lock Street, Narrogin, are respectfully informed that his remains will be interred in the Roman Catholic portion of the Narrogin Cemetery, TODAY, (Wednesday). The Funeral is appointed to leave St. Matthew's Roman Catholic Church at 4 o'clock. Requiem Mass will be celebrated at 9 am.
A. DAWSON AND SON, Narrogin.
Tel. 161 and 275.

Source: Trove/The West Australian (Perth) Wednesday 26 November 1952 Page 24.