STYLIANOU, Costas 16 November 1983

Designation	Accident Location	Accident Due to
Head Shunter	CBH Avon Yard	Fall from locomotive

Costas (Con) Stylianou died when he slipped and fell from the wet step of a locomotive at the CBH siding in Avon Yard. The accident happened near the end of his shift between 10:30 and 11:00pm on a rainy night. When he fell he hit or was hit by an axle box or some other protrusion and died at the scene. He was 29 years of age. Costas lived at Northam with his wife and young child. He is interred at Karrakatta Cemetery (Greek Orthodox/EA/0032)

Source: Brian & Colin Stevens Northam/Jeff Austin Rail Heritage WA/The Northam Advertiser Northam 24 November 1983/Graham and Marina Sands Northam.