SULLIVAN, Daniel 25 September 1902

Designation	Accident Location	Accident Due to
Plate Layer	22 Mile Kurrawang Woodline	Struck by PW trolley

Daniel Sullivan, a middle-aged Plate Layer was fatally injured when he was struck and run over by a Per Way trolley at 22 mile on the Kurrawang Woodline. He died later in the Government Hospital in Kalgoorlie. Daniel was single, lived at Kurrawang and is interred in the Roman Catholic section of the Kalgoorlie Cemetery. ©MM 2019

FUNERAL NOTICE.
The Friends of the late DANIEL SULLIVAN are respectfully invited to follow his remains to the Roman Catholic portion of the Kalgoorlie Cemetery. The funeral will leave A. and J. Kyle's undertaking establishment at 3 o'clock This (Monday) Afternoon, September 29th.

Source: Trove/Kalgoorlie Miner Monday 29 September 1902 Page 4 (Family Notices)

Death from Accident.
Daniel Sullivan, who was run over on the Kurrawang Company's line a few days ago, succumbed to his injuries yesterday morning in the Government hospital. There was little hope from the first of ultimate recovery, and even in that event Sullivan would have been permanently disabled. The deceased was middle-aged and unmarried. An inquest is not considered necessary.

Source: Trove/Kalgoorlie Miner (WA) Monday 29 September 1902. Page 4.