TAYLOR, Robert 3 November 1939

Designation	Accident Location	Accident Due to
Driver	Lakewood	Fall from cab of locomotive

Robert Taylor, Engine Driver, died when he fell from the cab of his locomotive at Lakewood. Robert lived in Kalgoorlie and is interred in the Roman Catholic section of the Kalgoorlie Cemetery. Robert was heavily involved with a number of community and sporting organisations at the time of his death.
©MM 2019

FUNERAL NOTICES
TAYLOR. The friends of Mr and Mrs J Treffene, of Lakewood ; Messrs. Bob, George, Bernie, Alf, Vince and Joe Taylor, Miss Veronica Taylor, of Lakewood; Mr and Mrs Vic Dawson, of Lakewood, are respectfully informed that the remains of their late dearly beloved father, father-in-law and brother-in-law, respectively, Robert, will be removed from W. Strother's Private Mortuary Chapel, 18 Hannan Street Kalgoorlie, THIS DAY (Monday), at 2 o'clock, for interment in , the Roman Catholic portion of the Kalgoorlie Cemetery.

A Requiem Mass will be celebrated in St. Mary's Church, Kalgoorlie, at 7 o'clock this day (Monday).

Source: Trove/Kalgoorlie Miner (WA) 6 November 1939 Page 4. Family Notices