TETLEY, Milton Charles 19 September 1945

Designation	Accident Location	Accident Due to
Yard Foreman	Banksiadale	Shunting operations

Milton Tetley was 38 years of age when he was fatally injured by being crushed between wagons and loading skids at Banksiadale. He was a returned serviceman. Milton lived at Banksiadale with his wife Gladys. She survived him by 36 years and they are both interred at Karrakatta Cemetery (ANGLICAN/WF/0059).

FATALITY AT BANKSIADALE.
The Fremantle police yesterday received a report that about 1:45 am yesterday Milton Charles Tetley (38) married, yard foreman, had been killed when he became crushed between a railway wagon and the loading skids at the railway mill at Banksiadale.

Source: Trove/The West Australian (Perth) Thursday 20 September 1945 Page 3.