WARE, Lloyd 24 September 1923

Designation	Accident Location	Accident Due to
Pumper	Canna	Blasting accident at dam

Lloyd Ware was killed in a blasting accident during the construction of a dam. Lloyd lived in Mullewa with his wife and four children and he is interred at Mullewa Cemetery.

FATAL ACCIDENT AT CANNA.
FUNERAL OF THE VICTIM.
The funeral of the late Mr. Lloyd Ware the victim of the unfortunate accident at Canna, took place at Mullewa onWednesday afternoon last, when a large cortege moved from Sister Rose's private hospital. The pallbearers were Messrs. A. Miller, H. Shepheard, C. O'Neil and F. Stanley, the Rev. W. E. Freeman conducted an appropriate service at the graveside, and then feelingly referred to the mother and four little children who had been bereft of their bread-winner. He appealed to all to let their sympathy in of some practical nature. The deceased was well-known on the Murchison, where he had resided for many years.

Source: Trove/Geraldton Guardian (WA) Tuesday 2 October 1923 Page 1.