WILSON, Arnold Harry 10 July 1915

Designation	Accident Location	Accident Due to
Guard	Woolgar	Shunting operations

Arnold Wilson was 35 years of age when he was fatally injured while engaged in shunting operations at Woolgar (Near Menzies). Harry lived at Kalgoorlie with his wife Mabel and he is interred in the Roman Catholic portion of the Kalgoorlie Cemetery.

FUNERAL NOTICES.
WILSON. W. A. A. S. of Railway Employees. All railway men are requested to attend the funeral of their late comrade, Harry Wilson, which leaves the Kalgoorlie railway station at 2.45 o'clock today (Monday), July 12th, 1915. Kindly wear uniform. J. Parini, Secretary.

WILSON. The friends of Mrs. Mabel Grace Wilson are respectfully invited to follow the remains of her late beloved husband, Arnold Harry, to the Roman Catholic portion of the Kalgoorlie cemetery. The funeral will leave the Kalgoorlie railway station for St. Mary's Church, Brookman Street at 2.45 o'clock, this day (Monday), July 12th, 1915.
A. & J. Kyle, Undertakers, Cassidy Street Tel. 23.

Source: Trove/Kalgoorlie Miner (WA) Monday 12 July 1915 Page 4.

Kalgoorlie
On Saturday evening last a very sad fatality occurred at Woolgar, four miles from Menzies, which resulted in the death of a guard, Arnold Harry Wilson, of Dugan Street, Kalgoorlie, an employee of the Railway Department. The deceased was engaged in shunting operations, when he accidentally slipped on the line, a brake van passing over him. He was so seriously injured, that he died soon after admission to the Menzies Hospital. The remains were brought to Kalgoorlie on Monday afternoon, when the funeral took place. It was largely attended by many friends, fellow-workers, and members of the Hibernian Society. The deceased leaves a widow and young family, to whom much sympathy is extended. R. I. P.

Source: Trove/The W.A. Record (Perth) Saturday 17 July 1915 Page 8.